Sullivan Club, said to a Journal reporter: "That kind of argument ought to cease. The subjects of race and religion have no proper place in American politics. I am a Democrat, but not because I am an Irish-man. The Democratic party don't own me on that account. Shiel will get many a vote from that crowd."

The audience, in fact, seemed to share the feeling of the voter quoted above, and showed no enthusiasm. There were probably 150 persons in the crowd."

Tippecanoe Ciub. The members of the Tippecance Club are earnestly requested to meet at the usual place in the court-house, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The president expressed the opinion that the club would not accept the invitation to go to Chicago Columbus day, but would accept the invitation extended to join in the demonstration in this city. It is in reference to this matter that action will be taken this afternoon. He said that it would not be possible for the cinb to march the whole route, but it could take its place and show its interest in the matter. None of the members are under seventy-two years of age.

Club at Castleton. A Harrison and Reid club was organized at Castleton last night, with the following officers: J. L. Brown, president; John Miles and H. Pratt. vice-presidents; John Asheraft, secretary. They adopted the constitution of the Lincoin League. The membership begins with thirty-eight, and this will be increased by the next meeting. Great interest was manifested in the tax question, which was plainly discussed by wick H. Ripley and Allen Hendricks.

HORSE-THIEF DETECTIVES.

Two Hundred Delegates and Visitors in Attendance at the National Meeting.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 4 .- The National Horse-thief Detective Association began its annual convention here to-day. The association was organized over a year ago from various branches in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. The officers are: President-Senator James A. Mount, Shannon-

Vice president—Henry Miller, New Paris, O. Secretary—D. B. Hostetter, Roachdale, Ind. Treasurer—Marion Potter, Jamestown, O. Organizer—John S. Gray, Waynetown, Ind.

Associations are organized in Edgar, Cook and Vermillion counties of Illinois, and Butler, Darke and Preble in Ohio. Indiana leads with associations in thirtyfour counties in this State. The first session opened at 9 o'clock, when ex-Judge M. A. Chipman delivered the address of welcome, and won hearty applause from the delegates. Mr. Chas. H. Dalton, of Illinois, responded for that State; D. L. Gaskill, of reentield, for the Buckeye detectives, and President Mount in behal of the Hoosiers. The remainder of the session was held with closed deors to all but members of the various chapters. There are 170 associations now in the organization, 135 of which are represented in the convention. The membership includes six thousand persons. During the past year the following chapters have been established in this State: Marion Detectives, Noblesville Detectives, Baker's Corner Detectives, Scottsburg Detectives, DeSoto Detectives. Good work has been accomplished during the past year and the presence in the various counties in the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois has in a large measure accounted for the very small number of thefts reported.

President Mount, in his annual address, reported six enses of theft, and in each case the thief was caught, convicted, and the stolen property returned to the owner. In addition to that, the association has been the means of securing thirteen convictions upon charges of larceny, and had the guilty parties sentenced to the penitentiary.

INDIANA BAPTISTS.

Opening Session of the State Convention-Selection of Officers for the Coming Year.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Oct. 4.- The sixtieth session of the Indiana Baptist State Convention, representing the organized efforts of 50,000 people of Indiana, began its sessions Monday evening. The address of welcome on the part of the citizens was delivered by Hon. B. C. D. Read, the Mayor of the city. Rev. W. H. H. Marsh, pastor of the church entertaining the convention, welcomed in heartfelt expressions the delegates to the homes and interests of the church and congregation. To these words Hon. J. J. W. Billingsley, of Indianapolis, fittingly responded. The annual sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Williams, pastor of the College-avenue Church, Indian-apolis, from Matt., xx, 28. He forcefully impressed the duty of proper ambition to follow the example of Christ in ministering to the world's necessities. The even-ing session was closed by benediction by Rev. P. O. Duncan, of Franklin. To-day's President B. F. Cavins, of Peru. The order of the morning was the pastors' conference. The opening subject was a symposium on "Our Associational Opportunities." The addresses and open discussions emphasized the advantages of more inti-mate association and more frequent meetings of pastors and churches. Ministers' and deacons' conferences, special services by neighboring churches, preaching during the week at charches not having pastors, departure from old methods to mest the demands, were some of the plans and ways suggested by which to use asso-ciational opportunities.

A paper on "The State of Religion" was read by Rev. N. C. Smith, of Washington, and was followed by discussion, Rev. Ad-dison Parker, of LaPorte, read, during the morning, a valuable paper, entitled, "The Social Conditions of the Workingman." It was an effort to rest the responsibility for the workingman's social and spiritual life upon the activity and connection of the Christian public. The discussion of this paper was led by Prof. W. J. Williams, of Franklin public schools.

Following the adjournment for dinner, and a pastors' devotional meeting, came a paper by Rev. W. F. Taylor, of Indianapolis, on "The Liturgy and Cathedral." The aim of the paper was to show how the peculiar form of cathedral architecture grew out of the liturgical need for nave. transept and altar. The address was well

At 2:45 P. M. the pastors' conference adfourned, and the routine work of the convention was resumed.

Reports were read by Rev. A. Ogle, superintendent of State missions, and by W. H. Perkins, the treasurer of the convention. Discussion followed by Rev. S. 8. Clarke, of Muncie, on the subject of. "State Missions Among Missionary Enterprises," and by Rev. Allen Hill on "Our Destitute Fields." At the close of the afternoon session the chair appointed the following standing committees:

WERE BEATEN BY ONE RUN

Mr. Brush's Cincinnati Team Went Down Before the St. Louis Browns.

Good Crowd Attended the Game-Magnates Have Decided on a Twelve-Club Circuit for Next Segson's Work.

BEATEN BY THE BROWNS. Cincinnati Team Lost Yesterday's Game by

One Run. Indianapolis had a taste of base-ball yesterday as it is played by the teams of the twelve-club League, the talent of St. Louis and Cincinnati being loaned for the occasion. The base-ball business, which blossoms in the spring and dies in the fall, has got along to the sere and yellow leaf period, when the players, in frayed and weather-beaten uniforms and with a lamentable absence of life and ginger, do their parts with the least possible show of vitality that will keep them on the salary list until the season closes.

The reason for the transfer of yesterday's gone to this city is the fact that the business in the larger cities has become unprofitable from diminished attendance. It always does at this period of the year. The most confirmed ball crank will become surfeited, the story of base hits, fouls, flies and home-runs becomes an oft-told tale, and takes on a chestnuty flavor. Another thing that contributes to the general indifference is the fact that the championship honors are settled, and the remainder of the season will accomplish little in shifting the clubs from the order of the positions they now occupy.

Indianapolis ball enthusiasts were glad of another opportunity to witness a game of professional ball, but there was not the patronage that will warrant the management of other ball teams in selecting Indianapolis as the place to finish the season on a paying basis. The attendance did not exceed eight hundred.

The game was called promptly at 3 o'clock, with Cincinnati at the bat. Holiday was given a base by virtue of Genins's error, but went out in an effort to purloin second. Latham rapped out a hit, and was moved to third on Browning's two-base hit. Latham then scored on a wild pitch, and the Gladiator came home on a sacrifice.

The young men from St. Louis scored a run in the first inning on Werden's two-base hit and Caruthers's single. Camp's home-run in the second tied the score. By the second, third and fourth innings St. Louis had hammered out hits and runs enough to give her a seemingly safe lead. In the third inning Werden, for St. Louis, went out on a foul to third base. Caruthers and Brodie hit safely and Moriarity went out on a fly to center. Then followed a fumble by Browning of Buckley's long drive, a two-base hit by Campand a single by Genins, and an inventory of the result showed four runs to the credit of St. Louis, Another was added in the fourth inning by a base hit and a stolen base by Caruthers and base hit by Brodie. In the fifth Cincinnati narrowed the gap, scoring two runs on a base on balls presented to Holliday, a single by Hoover and a two-bagger by Vaughn. In her half of the sixth Cincinnati closed the gap entirely. Smith knocked out a two-base hit, was moved up to third on Camp's fumble of Murphy's drive and scored on Holliday's sacrifice after Holliday had gone out from first to third, and Latham pranced up to the plate with his first attempt at mirthfulness. His anties put the crowd in a good humor and aroused the first genuine bit of interest and animation of the day. Selecting a ball to his liking, banged it in the direc-Genins, who, instead of throwing Latham out at first, attempted to catch Murphy between third and home. It was a close and exciting chase and Latham had got round to third base when a wild throw by the St. Louis catcher saved Murphy and allowed both him and Latham to score. Uproarious cheers greeted the play and the dude evinced his delight in a jig and a succession of summersaults. In her half of the sixth St. Louis added another run to her score on Werden's base hit and Caruthers's long drive to right field. Another resulted in the seventh from Camp's single, and hits by Briggs and Crooks. With two to tie Holliday led off in the ninth with a rattling two-base drive, but was caught between second and third on Genins's feint to throw out Latham at first. Latham stole second and third and scored on the catch of Browning's long foul fly to left. Hoover was thrown out from second to first and the game was over. Following is the score:

LEAGUE BALL MAGNATES.

Effort to Adjust Their Financial Affairs-Twelve Clubs Next Year. NEW YORK, Oct. 4.- The National League Base-ball magnates held a pow-wow at the Sixth-avenue Hotel. Of course their de-down-right secreey a base-ball magnate is little short of burglar-proof. They can probably talk less than any species of mankind in existence. According to able, the conference was for the purmeans to make good the $10,000 shortage in I. O. U. notes of last year for the purchase of the Milwankee, Chicago, Boston, Athletic and Columbus Association clubs. The amounts to be paid these clubs was something like $132,000, and it can be readily imagined what a drain it has been on the League clubs to make good the notes. Each club has been assessed a certain percentage, which was put patronage has not been sufficient to meet the obligations, and hence the call for the meeting. Of course other subjects were discussed, but regarding this part of the proceedings the magnates were like clams. They simply shut up, and their tongues could not be loosened for the most seductive interrogations. They are willing to give their individual opinions on any what they had done as a body.

base-ball subject, but they would not say President Young called the meeting to order shortly after 12 o'clock, and the subject of the association notes was at once taken up. The financial accounts of the various clubs were gone over at length. They showed a somewhat peculiar state of affairs. It was found that seven of the twelve clubs had made more money than last season, but that they were worse off. financially on account of the drainage occasioned by the sinking fund. The clubs which have not drawn well during the season were: New York. Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago and Washington. The question of the ten-thousanddollar shortage on the note due Nov. 1, was discussed pro and con for an hour and a half. At 1:30 P. M., without coming to any definite agreement on the matter, the meeting adjourned for lunch. Then the magnates scattered like a flock of sheep.

At 2:30 the magnates again went into session. Then came a long, dreary silence, not a magnate came out for his usual drink at the bar. They were buried in deep consideration of the twelve-club league. At 7:30 P. M. the magnates became hungry and adjourned for an hour for dinner. When the result of the meeting was announced, it was as follows:

The secretary was authorized to secure the renewal of the notes given by the ortract season should be from April 1 to Sept. 30, and that the championship games should not exceed 132 during the season, and that the time and place and other details of holding them should be decided by the president of the National League by the board of directors. The eighth annual meeting of the organization will be held at the Richelien Hotel, in Chicago, Nov. 16. In view of so much gossip on the subject a resolution was adopted expressing it as the sense of the meeting that no change in the membership of the League was advisable, and none would be made unless by a voluntary withdrawal of some of the clubs.

The Heraid says of the meeting: "The League base-ball magnates showed their hand pretty thoroughly when they asked for an extension of the time for meeting the notes of $10,000; in other words, nobody was willing to put up the money, and it was the sentiment of the members that it be raised from the receipts next year, if possible. If the holders of the yond Nov. 1, the League will be placed in rather a peculiar position. The magnates will either have to go down in their pockets or shut up shop. One thing of importance was decided at the night session. The Bostons and Clevelands will play off the world's series, beginning probably Oct. 17 or 18. The games will be played in the two cities exclusively. The Beston people fought against this, but upon a vote being taken it was unanimously decided that the series should be played, and the arrangements of details was referred to the League directors.

MRS. HARRISON UNABLE TO REST.

Her Sleep Broken for Three Nights-Accounts from the Sick-Room Not Cheering. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.-Mrs. Harrison today showed the fatiguing results of the loss of the comforting rest that she enjoyed all of last week. To-day was a repetition of yesterday, inasmuch as no special change for the better has occurred in her condition. She has had but broken sleep the past three nights, nor was she able to rest well during the day yesterday. Naturally, therefore, she is not feeling as strong, and the accounts from the sick-room are not as cheering. From the President down to the numblest employe of the house there is a feeling of depression to-day that nothing but a more encouraging statement of Mrs. Harrison's condition can dispel.

Will Go to New York If Possible, Washington, Oct. 4 .- A regular meeting of the Cabinet was held to-day at which all the members were present except Secretary Elkins, who is out of the city. The coming international monetary conference was one of the questions considered, and partial arrangements were made for official participation in the Columbian celebration in New York next week. The President will certainly attend, if the condition of Mrs. Harrison will justify his leaving her side. Unless her condition improves, however, it is not likely that he will deem it safe to leave her even for a day. In that event he will probably request the Vicepresident to represent him on this ocmajority if not all of the Cabinet officers will attend the celebration. The Post to-morrow will say: "There is no longer any doubt that the President will be compelled to abandon all plans for his participation in the Columbian exercises in New York next week, and at Chicago later. The condition of Mrs. Harrison is such that he will not be able to leave her bedside and at a very brief sitting of the Cabinet today he practically notified his ministers that he would not leave Washington. A prominent official from Indiana called at the White House to-day to have an audience with the President, but Mrs. Harrison's condition was such that the President declined to leave her room."

Afflicted Three Years by Dreadful Skin and Blood Disease, With Intense

All Other Remedies Fail, Relieved Instantly and Cured in Four Weeks by the Cuticura Kemedies.

I have a few words to say regarding the Cuti-cura Remedies. They have cured me in four weeks' time from a Skin and Blood Disease which I have had for over three years. At certain times my skin would be very sore, and always kept cracking and peeling off in white scales. In kept cracking and peeling off in white scales. In cold weather my face was one mass of scales. When in the cold air the pain was intense; it would almost bring tears to my eyes, and my blood also being in a poor condition, with a loss of hair. I have tried every known remedy that was recommended to me, but it was of no use, and gave me very little benefit. So hearing of your Cuticura Remedies, I concluded to give them a trial. The first application gave almost instant relief. In a few weeks' time I found myself cured, and I am thankful for what they have done for me. Your Cuticura Remedies are a blessing to those who may have the opportunity a blessing to those who may have the opportunity to use them. I can recommend them to any one.

Large as a Dollar Were the scrofula sores on my poor little boy, cially severe on his legs, back of his ears and on his head. His hair was so matted that combing was sometimes impossible. His legs were so bad that sometimes he could not sit down, and when he tried to walk his legs would crack open and the blood start.

Jos. Ruby. Physicians did not effect a cure. I decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two weeks the sores commenced to heal up; the scales came off and all over his body new and healthy flesh and skin formed. When he had taken two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla he was entirely free from sores." HARRY K. RUBY, Box 356, Columbia, Pennsylvania.
